W.P. No. 1017 of 2004 (S/S)

Hon. P.C. Pant, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Standing counsel.

The impugned order of transfer appears to have been passed in the public interest. The transfer is an exigency of service. There is no clear-cut case of malafide.

In the circumstances, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the transfer orders on judicial side under writ jurisdiction The writ petition is dismissed in limine with the observation that the petitioners may make their representations for their grievance before the departmental authorities, who shall decide the representations if any with a period of one month.
